

The Black & Silver Brigade

Warner Robins, Georgia

The Houston County High School Black & Silver Brigade is widely regarded as one of the top band programs in the state of Georgia. During the last decade, this competitive corps style marching band program has excelled in many areas, including earning top ratings at various invitational competitions.

With approximately 300 students enrolled in the band program, the award winning Black & Silver Brigade has performed in the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, Thanksgiving Day Parade in Philadelphia, the Marshall Fields Christmas Parade in Chicago, the State Street Thanksgiving Parade in Chicago, as well as the grand opening of the Museum of Arts and Science in Tampa, Florida. In addition, the Black and Silver Brigade was designated as Goodwill Ambassadors when it performed in Freeport, Grand Bahamas.

The Black & Silver Brigade is a non-profit organization funded almost entirely by donations and fundraisers. Now you too can become part of this outstanding organization and offer your support by becoming a corporate sponsor.
